Coastguard Northern Region Maritime School

Recreational Boating Courses

Welcome to Coastguard Northern Region's Education Programme

During my 10 years as a volunteer aboard a Coastguard Rescue Vessel, I've seen countless situations that could have been avoided. The vast majority of the people involved were sensible and prudent people. Unfortunately, they just didn't know what they didn't know. If they had taken the small amount of time to find out by doing a course, they could have joined our graduates who relish the confidence and security provided by the knowledge they've gained. Even those with years of boating experience are more often than not seriously surprised at what there is left to learn when they attend a course.

To ensure your experience with us is as rewarding as possible, all our tutors are professional educators with years of practical local experience.

Our courses cover all craft from small dinghies through to ocean going yachts. You can go for a formal qualification or it can be as casual as a few hours with an Instructor aboard your own boat – your choice.

Whether you are brand new to boating, upgrading your vessel or looking to extend your horizons, I'd encourage you to take a look and see what there is to offer here for either yourself or your regular crew.

If you're still unsure, just give us a call – we'd be happy to help!

Darren Arthur – Education Manager & Coastguard Volunteer

Women Suddenly in Charge

'Suddenly in Charge' is a one evening seminar discussing key topics such as safety equipment, emergency procedures, navigation, and some practical hints and tips delivered in a social setting. The objective is to help delegates to stay safe and get more involved in their boating activities. It is a highly interactive evening with three female tutors running small groups of through punchy theory and practical sessions. Please note it is not designed to replace courses such as the Day Skipper or Marine VHF Radio but gives a broad view of what to do if required to take over at short notice.

Course Fee (per person): $55.00

Own Boat Practical Tuition

- New to boating or purchased a larger or different type of boat than what you are used to?
- Finding it stressful to launch and retrieve, or get in and out of the marina berth?
- Is secure anchoring a bit hit and miss?
- Like to know more about using the electronics?
- Wondering what you need to do to safely stay out overnight?
- Just looking to improve your confidence?

Our instructors are professional educators. Not only do they have years of experience and knowledge, perhaps more importantly they also know how to teach effectively and minimise any anxious nerves.

International Qualifications

Looking to go boating overseas? You may need to hold a qualification to comply with local laws or charter companies requirements. We strongly advise you carefully research what you will need well in advance of departure. ICCs are awarded following a short practical and knowledge assessment appropriate to the type of ICC you require (power or sail).

Coastguard Maritime School is accredited to issue the ICC (International Certificate of Competence) for power vessels as well the CEVNI endorsement for inland waterways. Contact the office for more information.

Enrolment terms

1. Student Enrolment, Fees and Payment

- All students/course attendees must be enrolled with Coastguard Northern Region (CNR) prior to the start of the course.
- Enrolment fees/course fees are as per the current CNR fee schedule, and are subject to change without notice.
- New member discounts are only applicable for courses run by Coastguard Northern Region unless otherwise agreed and cannot be used in conjunction with any other special offer or discount.
- Member pricing is only applicable for courses run by Coastguard Northern Region unless otherwise agreed cannot be used with any additional special offer or discount. To be eligible the student must be a current member of Coastguard Northern Region Inc.
- Fees are payable at the time of enrolment, at least five days prior to the commencement of the course.

2. Cancellations, withdrawals and refunds

Coastguard Northern Region (CNR) reserves the right to reschedule, postpone and/or cancel courses without prior notice, although all efforts are made, and all alternatives exhausted to avoid this.

All tutored courses require a minimum of six attendees (unless otherwise specified). If enrolments fail to reach the minimum number of attendees five days prior to the start of the course, CNR will contact all enrolled students and offer the following alternatives:

- To transfer to any other course of the student's choice, including distance learning courses (with applicable part-refund or payment due).
- The offer of one-on-one tuition (if available and extra fees may apply).
- A full refund.

If a student withdraws after enrolment:

- If a cancellation is received by CNR more than two weeks prior to the commencement of a course, all fees, less 10% and the online booking charge if applicable, will be refunded.
- If a cancellation is received by CNR less than two weeks but more than five days prior to the commencement of a course, all fees, less 20% and the online booking charge if applicable, will be refunded.
- If a cancellation is received less than five days prior to the commencement of a course, all fees, less 50% and the online booking charge if applicable, will be refunded.
- If a student withdraws after the commencement of a course, no fees will be refunded (except in exceptional circumstances).

If a student elects to transfer to another course:

- If a request to transfer is received by CNR more than two weeks prior to the commencement of a course, a 10% (of the course fee) administration fee applies.
- If a request to transfer is received by CNR less than two weeks but more than five days prior to the commencement of a course, a 20% (of the course fee) administration fee applies.
- If a request to transfer is received less than five days prior to the commencement of a course, all fees, less 50% and the online booking charge if applicable, will be refunded.
- A request to transfer is not normally possible after the commencement of a course.

CNR through Coastguard Boating Education has an NZQA-approved student fee protection mechanism in place to protect all fees received from all enrolled students. The maximum liability for all fees paid is held in a static trust account.
